Charles Rutenberg LLC announced the appointment of real estate veteran, Chris Lipman as Residential Sales Manager, expanding the leadership team for its 600+ agents.

Lipman will be in charge of Rutenberg's residential business, now the sixth-largest in New York City.

Lipman joins Academy for Coaching and Training (ACT) real estate experts Esther Muller and Faith Hope Consolo with the responsibility for mentoring Rutenberg's agents with one-on-one guidance and weekly seminars.

Lipman has over two decades of management and industry experience with an expertise across real estate markets and segments.

Before joining Rutenberg as an agent, he was the Director of Sales for Harlem Lofts, and at Tungsten Property. He had also previously been a partner at Carol E. Levy Real Estate.

Lipman will report to Stefani Markowitz, Rutenberg's president and the granddaughter of its co-founder, Richie Friedman. The appointment will allow Markowitz to lead the Rutenberg Exclusives Team.

Lipman has been an active member of the Real Estate Board of New York since 2001, and served as co-chair in a leadership position from 2008 to 2012.

He graduated from The Cooper Union with a BFA in Photography and a special interest in Architecture.
